

New Online Degree Options for iStudySmart Customers and Their Families

We are excited to announce an alliance with Kaplan University that enables customers and their immediate family members to pursue their education online and benefit from a 10% reduced tuition rate. Financial aid is available for qualified applicants.

Kaplan University's online programs are designed for working adults. You can attend class whenever and wherever it fits into your busy schedule. Programs include associate's, bachelor's, and master's degrees in areas, such as business, information technology (IT), nursing, health sciences, criminal justice, and many others. Continuing education and certificate programs are also available in the areas of business and finance, health care, and IT.

Credit-by-examination, previous courses, corporate training, and work experience may translate into college credits, giving you a head start on your degree. Kaplan accepts up to 25 percent of total program requirements through CLEP and DSST/DANTES examinations. Combined with Kaplan's innovative online learning methods, you might be closer to a degree than you think.

At Kaplan University, you can study with confidence. Kaplan University is regionally accredited by The Higher Learning Commission (HLC) and a member of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools (NCA).
